

OLD HILLIARD

ROLLER RINK
The Roller Rink, a place for fun and entertainment, is now a reception hall.

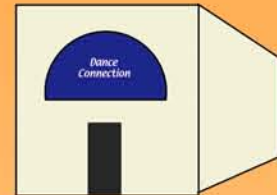

NORTHWEST VILLAGE
Northwest Village is in Weaver Park next to the Franklin County Fairgrounds. The village teaches visitors the history of Northwest Franklin County from the mid-1800's. Visitors can explore a log cabin, church, school, train station, and barn. The Historical Society Museum is also in the village.

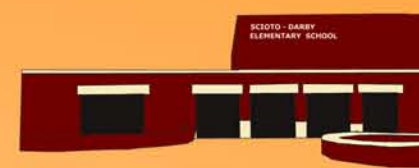

MERCHANTS AND FARMERS BANK
Although the name has changed over the years, the building that used to be the Merchants and Farmers Bank remains a bank today.

HILLIARD'S VILLAGE HALL AND JAIL
The small building that was once the Hilliard's Village Hall and Jail, is now the Hilliard Welfare Council.

POST OFFICE IN 1957
Hilliard got a new post office in 1957. Before 1957, the post office frequently moved from one general store to another. In 1986, this post office closed and is now a dance studio.

HILLIARD'S HIGH SCHOOL
Hilliard's High School was in use from 1906 until 1957. It was later torn down and then replaced by Scioto Darby Elementary.

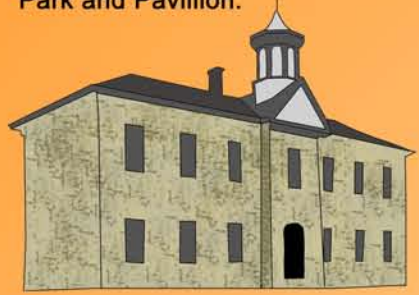

DR. J.W. RENNER OFFICE AND RESIDENCE
This home was owned by Dr. Renner and was built in 1916 to serve as his home and office. After he died, Dr. James W. Reason occupied the home. It remains one of the nice historical buildings of Hilliard and is still a residence today.

TIDD FUNERAL HOME
Tidd Funeral Home was built in 1875-1880. It was at first just a house but was later made into the funeral home. The outside building hasn't changed much since it was built (except for the porches and northern wing additions). The building's Gothic style makes it unique around Old Hilliard.

HOTEL FRANKLIN
Hotel Franklin was demolished in 2002 and is now Hilliard Sesquicentennial Park and Pavillion.

HILLIARD CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL
The Hilliard Consolidated School is now known as Masonic Hall. The school was built in 1878 and it served as a school for all grades (both elementary and high school) until a new high school was built in 1904. It was used as an elementary school until 1918 when it was bought by the local chapter of Masons. They still use this important Old Hilliard landmark today.

WESTWELLER RESIDENCE AND SHOPS
The Westweller Residence was built in 1860-1865. John Westweller, a farmer, lived in the building and possibly sold his produce next door. A second story was added to the house in 1872 and was used as a town hall. In 1903, the building was used as a Merchants and Farmers Bank. The building is still used today as shops.

WILLBARGERS PHARMACY AND SODA FOUNTAIN
This building was originally Willbargers Pharmacy and Soda Fountain. People would enjoy spending time with their friends while drinking a cold soda.

HILLIARD'S AUDITORIUM
This auto parts store was originally Hilliard's Auditorium. People used to watch silent movies at the auditorium while someone would play music on a piano.

WINTERRINGER BUILDING
The Winterringer Home (below) was added to the original business between 1875-1880. It was built as a house for the family that ran the business. When it was made into a restaurant, an outdoor entrance was added. Other than that, the building hasn't changed and remains a memorable part of Old Hilliard.

HERITAGE RAIL TRAIL
Heritage Rail Trail is a 7 mile path that extends from Old Hilliard to Plain City, Ohio. The trail was changed from an abandoned railroad into a paved path for biking, skating, and walking. The path is one of 11 rail trails in Ohio.

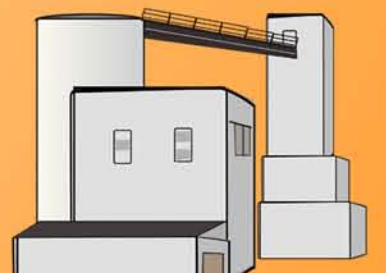

ODD FELLOWS HALL ALDER HARDWARE STORE
This building used to be Odd Fellows Hall and Alder Hardware Store. It has changed little since it was built and is now a restaurant.

HILLIARD METHODIST CHURCH
This church was the first congregation in Hilliard. It was built by Methodists in 1883. John Hilliard set the land aside for a church in 1853. When the church was built it had a strong following of about 300 members in 1876. The church remains an important landmark in the heart of Hilliard.

FIRST FIRE STATION
This was the first fire station in Hilliard. It is no longer in use and was replaced by the Norwich Fire Station. This building is now used as storage.

RUSSELLS GRAIN COMPANY
Russells Grain Company started in 1932. It went through many changes and additions during its years of operation. Even the Winterringer home and hardware store were purchased to make a bigger parking lot for the grain company. 1961 was Russells Grain Company's last year of operation.

NORWICH TOWNSHIP FIRE DEPARTMENT
This is the current fire department in Hilliard. It replaced the first Norwich Fire Station.

DR. MERRYMAN HOUSE
This home was owned by physician, Dr. James M. Merryman. He practiced in Hilliard in the 1880s and 1890s. This house still has a lot of the charm that it did then. It is one of the best known buildings in Old Hilliard because of its original structure and design.

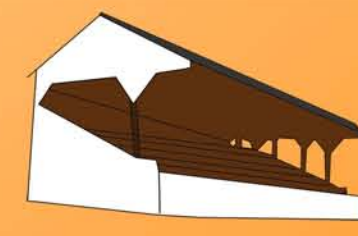

HILLIARD'S STATION
The railroad track was first laid in 1850 and was open for public use in 1853. People had to pay 28 cents to ride the railroad to Plain City. The train station was released in 1969 by the Pennsylvania Railroad and became the first building to be a part of the Northwest Village.

HILLIARD'S ELEMENTARY
Hilliard's Elementary was built in 1916. It remained in use until it was torn down in 1990. It was made into a new school, Hilliard Station (for 6th graders).

NW FRANKLIN COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY
The Northwest Franklin County Historical Society cares for the Northwest Historical Village. The Library is where they archive and store historical artifacts, records, articles and photos of the area.

FRANKLIN COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS
The Franklin County Fairgrounds built its famous grandstand in 1941. Because of World War II, steel was hard to get so it was made out of heavy timber. People could watch races and other events in the grandstand. In 2000, the grandstand burned to the ground and was later replaced!
